Britain a Nation in Social and Economic Decline

UK Times Report Jan/2017

What happens when weak Political leaders past and present have allowed Muslim immigration as an “open door policy”

Mayor of London	- Muslim
Mayor of Birmingham	- Muslim
Mayor of Leeds	- Muslim
Mayor of Blackburn	- Muslim
Mayor of Sheffield	- Muslim
Mayor of Oxford	-Muslim
Mayor of Luton	-Muslim
Mayor of Oldham	-Muslim
Mayor of Rochdale	- Muslim

The following Statistics from 2016 now reveal

3000+Muslim Mosques

130+ Muslim Sharia Courts [ The Commonwealth Constitution does not allow Sharia Law]

50+Muslim Sharia Councils

16 Muslim only area's operating under Islamic rule , within the UK

*Economic and social Cost

63% of Muslim Men are on social Security Benefits

78% of Muslim Women on social security Benefits/housing/transport/medical/legal aid/ private English lessons.

Muslim Men in UK under Sharia Law [again although illegal under UK Law] may have many wife's . Also in-breeding is very common, between brothers and sister's .

All UK School canteen's are now required to serve only Halal Certified Products.

This is Incredible considering that the Muslim represent just over 4% of UK,s total population.

This appears to be a mirror image of What the on-going with Australia's open door policy on Immigration by our weak Federal Government's / opposition and Greens.

RELIGIOUS AFFILIATIONS, 2016

Religious Affiliation		Population ('000)	Population (%)
Christian	Catholic	5 291.8	22.6
	Anglican	3 101.2	13.3
	Other Christian	3 808.6	16.3

	Hinduism	440.3	1.9
	Sikhism	125.9	0.5
	Judaism	91.0	0.4
	Other	186.7	0.8
	Total	1 920.8	8.2
	No Religion<sup>a</sup>	7 040.7	30.1
Australia<sup>b</sup>	23 401.9	100

a No religion includes secular and other spiritual beliefs.

b As religion was an optional question, the total for Australia will not equal the sum of the items above it.

* Australia also remains a predominantly religious country, with 60 per cent of people reporting a religious affiliation. However, the proportion of people reporting no religion increased to 30 per cent in 2016 - up from 22 per cent five years ago, and nearly double the 16 per cent in 2001.

* Australians are getting older with 664,473 additional people aged 65 and over since 2011.

Out of Australia's population of 23.4 million people, 7,040,700 people identify as having no religion.

Catholics make up just over 22 per cent – or 5.2 million people – followed by 3.8 million Christians – or 16.3 per cent.

Footnote>

*However the growth in immigrants from Islamic countries has risen sharply in a short few years. The benefits are now greatly eroded by the economic and social cost to Australian Taxpayers.

*Australia's Muslim's as 2.6% of the population represent the second largest social security cost to the Australian Taxpayer, only exceeded by Indigenous Australian's.

THE STORY OF THE SQUIRREL AND THE GRASSHOPPER

POPULAR VERSION

The squirrel works hard in the withering heat all summer long, building and improving his house and laying up supplies for the winter.

The grasshopper thinks he's a fool, and laughs and dances and plays the summer away.

Come winter, the squirrel is warm and well fed.

The shivering grasshopper has no food or shelter, so he dies out in the cold.

THE AUSTRALIAN VERSION

**This then, pretty much sums up what's happening in Australia today, Lucky country?

The squirrel works hard in the withering heat all summer long, building his house and laying up supplies for the winter.

The grasshopper thinks he's a fool, and laughs and dances and plays the summer away.

Come winter, the squirrel is warm and well fed.

A social worker finds the shivering grasshopper, calls a press conference and demands to know why the squirrel should be allowed to be warm and well fed while others less fortunate, like the grasshopper, are cold and starving.

The ABC shows up to provide live coverage of the shivering grasshopper; with cuts to a video of the squirrel in his comfortable warm home with a table laden with food.

The Australian press informs people that they should be ashamed that in a country of such wealth, this poor grasshopper is allowed to suffer so while others have plenty.

The Greens, the Labor Party, Getup, Greenpeace, Animal Rights and The Grasshopper Housing Commission of Australia demonstrate in front of the squirrel's house.

The ABC, interrupting a cultural festival special from St Kilda with breaking news, broadcasts a multi-cultural choir singing 'We Shall Overcome'.

Bill Shorten rants in an interview with Laurie Oakes that the squirrel got rich off the backs of grasshoppers, and calls for an immediate tax hike on the squirrel to make him pay his 'fair share' and increases the charge for squirrels to enter Melbourne city centre.

In response to pressure from the media, the Government drafts the Economic Equity and Grasshopper Anti-Discrimination Act, retroactive to the beginning of the summer. The squirrel's taxes are reassessed

He is taken to court and fined for failing to hire grasshoppers as builders, for the work he was doing on his home, and an additional fine for contempt when he told the court the grasshopper did not want to work.

The grasshopper is provided with a Housing Commission house, financial aid to furnish it and an account with a local taxi firm to ensure he can be socially mobile.

The squirrel's food is seized and re-distributed to the more needy members of society - in this case the grasshopper.

Without enough money to buy more food, to pay the fine and his newly imposed retroactive taxes, the squirrel has to downsize and start building a new home.

A 60 Minutes special shows the grasshopper finishing up the last of the squirrel's food, though spring is still months away, while the Housing Commission house he is in, crumbles around him because he hasn't bothered to maintain it. He is shown to be taking drugs.

Sarah Hanson Young blames inadequate government funding for the grasshopper's drug 'Illness'.

The grasshopper gets arrested for stabbing an old dog during a burglary to get money for his drugs habit. He is imprisoned but released immediately because he has been in custody for a few weeks.

He is placed in the care of the probation service to monitor and supervise him.

Within a few weeks he has killed a guinea pig in a botched robbery.

A commission of enquiry, that will eventually cost $10 million and state the obvious, is set up.

Additional money is put into funding a drug rehabilitation scheme for grasshoppers.

Legal aid for lawyers representing asylum seekers is increased.

The grasshopper dies of a drug overdose.

The usual sections of the press blame it on the obvious failure of government to address the root causes of despair arising from social inequity and his traumatic experience of prison.

The Greens and the Labor Party call for the resignation of the Prime Minister.

The squirrel, the dogs and the victims of the hijacking, the bombing, the burglaries and robberies have to pay an additional percentage on their credit cards to cover losses, their taxes are increased to pay for law and order, and they are told that they will have to work beyond 65 because of a shortfall in government funds.
